FROM THE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF BLACK FRIDAY AND THE DIRECTOR OF AAMIR

Devastated when she is told that her sister, Jessica Lal, is shot dead by Manish Bhardwaj, the son of Pramod, a Congress party Member of Parliament in Haryana, Delhi based Sabrina Lal, in the company of her parents, attends the Court to view a charade that will lead to the acquittal of the accused and his accomplices 7 years after the incident. Disillusioned by rampant police corruption & inefficiency; a stagnant British introduced legal system; the passing of her mother & the hospitalization of her father, she retreats unto herself. Then foul-mouthed NDTV employee, Meera Gaitly, known for being more of an activist than a Journalist, takes an interest in this incident, and uncovers conspiracy & corruption that led to the accused acquittals - leading to a near India-wide protest. While preparing herself to participate in a candle-lit procession at Delhi's India Gate.
